

FINISTERRE

SAN XUSTO church of the ancient monastery of Toxos Outos.

CARNOTA (stop) Galician's longest beach and largest stone granary.

NOIA (stop) beautiful fishing city, situated at the end of estuary. Medieval mansions and Romanesque churches like Santa Maria with and extraordinary collection of guildy-lapidaries.

EL PINDO fishing village.

EZARO memorable landscapes.

PONTENAFONSO ogival-bridge from the 14th century which joins the lands of Noia and Muros. Gothic stone cross and marsly landscapes.

CEE at the end of Corcubion estuary, dividing the High Estuary from the Low Estuary. Important comercial and industry centre. Factory of Metallic Carbide and whaler factory.

SIERRA DE OUTES a perfect combination of leafiness, orchards and sea.

CORCUBIÓN active comercial port. Different small beaches.

ESTEIRO, BORNALLE, ABELLEIRA, villages which pass before our gaze with beautiful beaches, green valleys and typical galician buildings.

SARDIÑEIRO marine and forming settlement.

LUNCH

MUROS (stop) a typical small manor town, situated at the mouth of the Estuary. It was declared as historical-artistic complex. Former collegiate church of Santa Maria nowadays it's the parish church of San Pedro built in gothic style.

FINISTERRE typical and original small town situated on the "Promontorium Nerium". Romanesque church from the 12th century Christ of the golden beard. Port and Beach.

LOURO beach, San Francisco monastery, stone crosses field and Crossway on the mountain.

CAP FINISTERRE (stop) impressive views from the lighthouse all over the Atlantic Ocean. Mysterious legend about shipwrechin and galleons. We are in the heart of the Coast of the Death.

RETURN: approximately at 7 p.m.