

RÍAS ALTAS

PUNTEDEUME (stop) lovely medieval fishing and vacation village. It was built on the sides of very steep hills (at the foot of the Bremao Mountain). Narrow streets with arcades - Castle and Tower of the Andrade family who were once lords over most of this lands. Parish church of Santiago. "Brige over th Eume River" which gives the name to the village. The Magdalena beach and the vacation village of Cabañas.

MIÑO tourist villa with a long beach and sandy hills. Camping site. Wonderful view tho the Betanzos Estuary.

PONTE DO PORCO medieval bridge over Lambre river. Beautiful beach and Camping ground.

BETANZOS (stop) monumental town, having interesting romanesque and gothic churches: Santa María del Azouge, Santiago and San Francisco with the burial of Fernán Perez de Andrade "O'Bo". (the good) Capital of the "As Mariñas dos condes" area.

EL PEDRIDO bridge with a splendid view of Betanzos estuary. Beautiful marshes and shellfich-growing plots.

SADA fishing and sport port in Fontán. Fine sand beaches. Wonderful view of Betanzos estuary.

LUNCH

MEIRÁS Meiras Palace. It was the summerhouse of General Franco's family.

SANTA CRUZ tourist villa on one border of La Coruña Estuary. Castle of Santa Cruz on a small island close to the coast. Beaches.

A CORUÑA (stop) provincial Capital. It is a beautiful seafaring city situated on a peninsula which is divided into three parts; the old City, the centre or "pescadería" and the "Ensanche". It has on active international fishing and passengers port. Wonderful galleries enchanche the facades of the houses which gave it the name of "Glass city". Hercules Tower being the only roman light-house still workes in the world. Orzan and Riazor beaches. Some free time in the centre.

RETURN: approximately at 6 p.m.